Director's Meeting

Thursday, 11 October 1951

25X1 The DCI raised the question of an [] man in [] and who 25X1 should decide whether we should have one. Mr. Dulles said we had no 25X1 representative there at the moment and that he believed Mr. Matthews of State and [] would have to decide this. Mr. Jackson noted that there was a question of principles involved if Ambassadors could determine where we should have representatives. No decision was reached on the [] job. Mr. Dulles will look into it. (Mr. [] will check with Mr. Kirkpatrick to find out what has happened).

25X1 The Director asked what good if any we were doing in [] 25X1 Mr. Dulles admitted that the situation was not clear in what we were trying to accomplish but that it was a State Department request. The Director asked Col. [] to look into the whole matter carefully and report back.

25X1 []
25X1 The DCI noted the item in the log in regard to Ambassador [] change of station and his request to [] him. The Director stated that in his reply to the Ambassador we should say that CIA would be glad to deviate from policy in this case and accede to his request.

25X1 The Director again mentioned that we must get some good men 25X1 for the Board of Estimates, especially an economist. He stated that Gen. [] had declined. [] will determine whether there is anyone at Princeton whom we can approach. Mr. Dulles will try [] and the DCI will call []. The DCI also noted that he would sign Dr. Langer as a consultant after he leaves in February.

25X1 Mr. Dulles suggested that [] be cleared as a consultant.
25X1 The Director approved. Col. [] said that this was already in process but he will follow it up.

25X1 Mr. Jackson asked who is riding herd on the consultants. Mr.
[] will follow this and get a quarterly report from all the offices.
